Manuscript Releases, vol. 1 [Nos. 19-96], MR No. 26—Statements Regarding Thoughts on Daniel and the Revelation

Let our canvassers urge this book upon the attention of all. The Lord has shown me that this book will do a good work in enlightening those who become interested in the truth for this time. Those who embrace the truth now, who have not shared in the experiences of those who entered the work in the early history of the message, should study the instruction given in Daniel and the Revelation, becoming familiar with the truth it presents.1MR 61.1

Those who are preparing to enter the ministry, who desire to become successful students of the prophecies, will find Daniel and the Revelation an invaluable help. They need to understand this book. It speaks of past, present, and future, laying out the path so plainly that none need err therein. Those who will diligently study this book will have no relish for the cheap sentiments presented by those who have a burning desire to get out something new and strange to present to the flock of God. The rebuke of God is upon all such teachers. They need that one teach them what is meant by godliness and truth. The great, essential questions which God would have presented to the people are found in Daniel and the Revelation. There is found solid, eternal truth for this time. Everyone needs the light and information it contains.1MR 61.2

The students in our schools should carefully study Daniel and the Revelation, so that they shall not be left in darkness, and the day of Christ overtake them as a thief in the night. I speak of this book because it is a means of educating those who need to understand the truth of the Word. This book should be highly appreciated. It covers much of the ground we have been over in our experience. If the youth will study this book and learn for themselves what is truth, they will be saved from many perils.1MR 63.4

Between 1798 and 1844 many people studied Daniel, and the Lord chose William Miller; After the great disappointment of 1844, the Lord chose a few truth-seeking children in various denominations (they formed the Seventh-day Adventist Church); But at this time there was a different interpretation in the Sabbath church in Daniel 11. The Lord instructed Mrs. Ellen to tell his people that Uriah Smith's Daniel and the Revelation is what we were going to study.

My declarations :
In order to visualize the scriptures, there are some verses that correspond to historical periods that are clear. However, there are also some uncertain scriptures corresponding to historical periods. For these unclear scriptures historical periods are for reference only.

Thank the Lord for His help and guidance to make the content of the book Daniel so clear. Of course, due to my limited ability and knowledge, there are inevitably problems with corrigendum. If you find a problem, please indicate the error with a screenshot and contact me. I will take notes and make corrections.

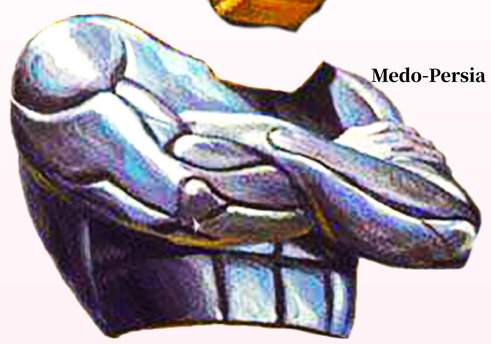

The interest in Daniel and the Revelation is to continue as long as probationary time shall last. God used the author of this book as a channel through which to communicate light to direct minds to the truth. Shall we not appreciate this light, which points us to the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, our King? {1MR 63.1}
